MOUNTAIN OAK

TRADITIONAL PLANK FLOORING – THE WAY THEY USED TO DO IT

Characterized by the rugged, unyielding spirit of the Allegheny and Appalachian foothills and peaks, our Traditional Mountain Oak old growth flooring is live-sawn through an antique, 60-in. saw blade to replicate the look of early milling. Its authentic, rustic appearance is akin to reclaimed hit-skip oak.

With its vigorous mixture of dark and golden browns and honeyed tans, old growth mountain oak – known for its quality, strength and beauty – will help you create the perfect, enduring space.

DISTINCTIVE ATTRIBUTES

Our mountain oak wide plank flooring is cut from select, fully mature wood timbers. Durable old growth mountain oak hardwood flooring features robust, dense grain patterns, authentic saw marks, sound knots and natural checking.
