BASEBOARDS & CASING

A SMALL DETAIL THAT MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE

In any project, it is important to keep the small details and finishing touches in mind because they sometimes make the biggest impact in its design. Complete your project's look with the addition of baseboards & casings that compliment its hardwood elements. These products are available in most hardwood species and can be crafted in a variety of styles and sizes, so there is a solution for every taste and décor. Please ask your Design Specialist for pricing and more information.
